FOR CONSIDERATION

Peace of soul is precious to all men. With those who have acquired peace of soul, the body can be in constant motion, occupation or pain, but their souls, cleaving to God, remain always in unshakeable peace. St Seraphim of Serov teaches: 'We must endeavour by every means to keep peace of soul. Do not be troubled by the insults of men. It is necessary at all costs to restrain oneself from anger, and by watchfulness over oneself to keep the mind and heart from vain movement… For the guarding of peace of soul, it is also necessary to flee from judging others. By non-judgement and silence, peace of soul is preserved. When a man attains to such a state, he receives divine revelation. For a man to be able to keep himself from judging others, he must be vigilant over himself; he must not dare to receive vain thoughts from another, and must be as one dead before all that is of the world. We must tirelessly keep our hearts from vain thoughts and impressions. (Prov. 4:23). By constant watchfulness over the heart, a purity of heart is born in which God is seen, according to the words of eternal truth: Blessed are the pure in heart; for they shall see God" (Matthew 5:8)

QUOTES FROM THE HOLY FATHERS

Only in this life can you do good. What is waiting you in the future life is not the opportunity of doing good but the reward of having done it.

St. Augustine of Hippo

Forget your good deeds as soon as possible…Do not record your good deeds, for if you record them, they will soon fade. But if you forget them, they will be written in eternity.

St. Nicholai Velimirovich

Send your treasures to the heavenly storage room. Deposit your wealth in God's bank, distributing it to the poor, the orphans and the widows, so that you can receive a million times more in the Second Coming of Christ

St. Joseph the Hesychast
