QUOTES FROM THE HOLY FATHERS

Sometimes we do not see any outlet, any escape from our sins, and they torment us: on account of them, the heart is weary and oppressed with sorrow. But Jesus looks upon us and streams of tears flow from our eyes, and with the tears all the tissue of evil in our soul vanishes. We weep with joy that such mercy has suddenly and unexpectedly been sent to us.

St. John of Kronstadt

The person that is struggling to the best of his abilities, who has no desire to live a disorderly life, but who – in the course of the struggle for faith and life – falls and rises again and again, God will never abandon. And if he has the slightest will not to grieve God, he will go to Paradise with his shoes on. The Benevolent God will, surprisingly, push him into Paradise. God will ensure that he takes him at his best, in repentance. He may have to struggle all his life, but God will not abandon him; He will take him at the best possible time.

Elder Paisios of the Holy Mountain

The passion for popularity brings such injury upon those it masters that it shipwrecks faith itself. Our Lord confirms this when He says, "How can you have faith in Me when you receive honor from one another and do not seek for the honor that comes from the only God?"

St. Gregory Palamas

When God sees that we are proud and arrogant, He allows for the presence of temptations in our life. He will take them away from us, only when He sees that we humble ourselves.

Elder Paisios of the Holy Mountain

Let us labor little, that we may rest forever. Do not seize gold, but seize that wealth which shows gold to be but mud.

St. John Chrysostom
