FOR CONSIDERATION

There is no greater honour or calling on earth than to be a Christian. When the judge-torturer Servirus asked the young Peter Apselamus: 'Of what family are you?', Peter replied: 'I am a Christian.' The judge questioned him further: 'Of what rank are you?' To this he replied: 'There is no higher or finer rank than that of a Christian.' Father John of Kronstadt writes: 'The whole world is a thistle-down in comparison with the soul of a Christian person.' A Christian is an earthen vessel into which are poured godly strength and light. If that vessel be placed on a king's golden throne or tucked away in some lightless beggar's hovel, its worth is thereby neither magnified or diminished. Does not gold have the same worth, whether wrapped in a silk scarf or a cabbage leaf?

QUOTES FROM THE HOLY FATHERS

I saw the snares that the enemy spreads out over the world and I said groaning, "What can get through such snares?" Then I heard a voice saying to me, "Humility".

St. Anthony the Great

If you want to tune into God so He listens to you when you pray, turn the knob to humility, for on this frequency God operates, and humbly ask for His mercy.

St. Paisios the Athonite

Struggle against your passions from the moment they appear in your mind. Take the bull by the horns and fight against them with all your strength because if you don't, then they will become habits and get entrenched in you. Eventually they will seem to be completely normal to you and not passions at all, and then your struggle will be extremely difficult.

St. Sergei of Vanves
