THE FEAST OF THEOPHANY

"Epiphany" means appearance. "Theophany" means the appearance of God. After Pascha and Pentecost, Theophany is considered the third greatest feast of the Orthodox Church, greater than Christmas.

When the Jordan saw the Invisible One visible, the Fleshless One Incarnate, it was frightened and turned back its flow! St John the Baptist trembled and said, "How can a servant baptize his Master, how can a lamp illuminate the light?" Which light? That blessed triple-sun light, "which gives light to every man coming into the world." (John 1:9) The beginning-less Father bore witness to His co-beginning-less Son, while the comforter descended in the form of a dove and remained on the immaculate head of Jesus, confirming the certainty of the word. Every Christian soul rejoices and leaps for joy before the grandeur of the mystery of Theophany! Oh, what a God and Father we have!
