Saint Peter –first preached the Gospel to the Jews and then in Antioch. He also went to Pontos, Galatia, Capadocia, Asia, Britain, and Italy, and was afterward crucified by Nero in Rome with his head downward, as he himself desired to suffer that way, not worthy to be crucified like Jesus Christ.

Saint Paul – entered into apostleship a year after the ascension of Christ. He began at Jerusalem, and advanced as far as Illyricum, Italy, and Spain preaching the Gospel for thirty-five years. In the time of Nero, he was beheaded at Rome where he was buried. Much of the life of Saint Paul can be found in the Acts of the Apostles. Saint Paul is considered the Apostle to the Gentiles.

Saint Andrew – the First-called apostle and brother of Saint Peter, preached to the Scythians and Tracians, and was crucified by the governor Aegeates, suspended on a cross of olive wood in the shape of an X, at Patras, a town of Achaia, where he was buried. The Apostle Andrew preached the gospel in coastal parts of the Black Sea, Bithynia, and Armenia.

Saint Iakovos (James) – was the Son of Zebedee and Saint John's brother. He preached in Judea and was slain by the sword at the time of Herod the King. He was the first of the Twelve Apostles to be martyred. He was buried in Judea.

Saint John the Theologian – preached on Athos and in Asia. He was banished by Emperor Domitian to the island of Patmos, where he wrote his Gospel and received the apocalyptic vision. At Ephesus he fell asleep in the Lord, where his relics were sought, but could not be found. It is said that since the Lord called him "The Beloved," that John's body was taken into heaven.

Saint Philip – preached along with his fellow Apostle Barthlomew in Galilee, Greece, Arabia, Candacia, Syria, Lydia, Mysia, and Phrygia. At Hierapolis, in the time of Domitian, he was crucified head downward, and was buried there.

Saint Bartholomew – preached in Lydia and Mysia. He was crucified with his head downward, but when found alive he was flayed and beheaded. He was buried in Armenia, but his relics were divinely delivered and found in the sea near Sicily.

Saint Thomas – (called the Twin) preached to the Indians, Parthinians, Medes, Persians, Hyrcanians, Bactrians, and Margians. He was thrust through with five spears in Kalamene, a city of India, where he was buried.

Saint Matthew – the evangelist wrote the Gospel in the Hebrew dialect. He published it at Jerusalem. He passed through preaching in Macedonia, Syria, Persia, Parthia, Media, and Ethiopia. He was to be burnt alive, but he surrendered his soul in the midst of the flames that did not burn his body.

Saint James – was the son of Alphaeos and the brother of Saint Matthew. He went to many lands, and surrendered his spirit into the hands of the Lord while nailed to a cross in Egypt.

Saint Jude – the brother of the Lord and the son of Saint Joseph the Betrothed, also named Lebbaeos and Thaddeus, preached first in Judea, then Galilee, Samaria, Arabia, Syria, and Mesopotamia. He was crucified near Mount Ararat and run through with spears.

Saint Simon – the Zealot, bridegroom at the marriage in Cana, preached Christ, passing though Egypt, Libya, Cyrenia, along the black Sea, and Britain. He was crucified in the lands of Africa.

Saint Matthias – was one of the Seventy Apostles and elected to replace Judas. He preached in Macedonia but retuned to Judea where he was stoned to death, then beheaded with an axe afterward.

Kontakion: (tone 2)

Today Christ the Rock valiantly glorifies the rock of faith, the most splendid of the disciples, along with Paul and the council of the twelve. As we celebrate their memory, with faith we glorify the One who glorified them.
