GRADUATE SUNDAY

High School Graduates

Xenia Kobal –Xenia Kobal, daughter of Stephanie and Jim Kobal, graduates from The Greater Johnstown High School and Penn Highlands Community College. Xenia has been active in the parishes Sunday School Program from a young age, and has volunteered at many church events. Xenia attended Johnstown High School where she graduated 4th in her class. She was a member of several clubs including the National Honor Society (where she served as president), French Honor Society (where she served as president), yearbook club (where she served as president), the key club, pep club, interact club, the summit learning program, and summit council (where she served as a representative). Xenia was also enrolled in the Pennsylvania Highlands Community College Dual Enrollment Program where she graduated with an associate's degree. Alongside academics, Xenia was a member of the Varsity Volleyball team, lettering every year. She was nominated by the Pennsylvania Volleyball Coaches Association for the District 6 class 3A first team, and was also nominated to participate in the 37th annual All-star volleyball game. Xenia also surpassed 1,000 assists for her high school career. Xenia plans to further her education at the University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown, on a full academic scholarship.

Anya Murray - Anya Marion Murray graduated from St. Nicholas Academic Community, a homeschool co-op at the Manassas, VA parish. Anya has already started health science studies at Northern Virginia Community College and desires to apply to several nursing programs next year, hoping to become a labor and delivery nurse someday. Besides her academics, for the last several years Anya has been volunteering at the Nativity parish as a bookkeeping and office assistant as well as an occasional cantor. Anya loves the church, music, and organizing things.
