The Synodikon of Orthodoxy

As the Prophets beheld,
As the Apostles taught,
As the Church received,
As the Teachers dogmatized,
As the Universe agreed,
As Grace illumined,
As the Truth revealed,
As falsehood passed away,
As Wisdom presented,
As Christ awarded,
Thus we declare, Thus we assert,
Thus we proclaim Christ our true God and honor His saints,
In words, In writings,
In thoughts, In sacrifices,
In churches, In holy icons.
On the one hand, worshipping and reverencing Christ as God and Lord.
And on the other hand, honoring and venerating His Saints as true servants of the same Lord.
This is the Faith of the Apostles.
This is the Faith of the Fathers.
This is the Faith of the Orthodox.

This is the Faith which has established the Universe.

QUOTES FROM THE HOLY FATHERS

Helping a person in need is good in itself. But the degree of goodness is highly affected by the attitude with which it is done. If you show resentment because you are helping the person out of a reluctant sense of duty, then the person may receive your help, but may feel awkward and embarrassed. This is because he will be beholden to you. If, on the other hand, you help the person in a spirit of joy, then the help will be received joyfully. The person will feel neither demeaned nor humiliated by your help, but rather will feel glad to have caused you pleasure by receiving your help. And joy is the appropriate attitude with which to help others because acts of generosity are a source of blessing to the giver as well as the receiver. - Saint John Chrysostom

If you harbor rancor against someone, pray for him and you will arrest the movement of the passion; for through prayer, you can separate the feeling of distress from the memory of the wrong that he did to you. When you become loving and compassionate towards the person who wronged you, you completely eradicate the passion from your soul. If someone else harbors a grudge against you, be kind and humble towards him and maintain cordial relations with him; and you will deliver him from his passion. - Saint Maximos the Confessor
