O.C.F. REAL BREAK OPPORTUNITY
PLEASE HELP XENIA KOBAL

Through O.C.F. Xenia has been given the opportunity to travel to Romania this summer with a group of other fellow Orthodox Christians from around the world. Just like everything nowadays, this trip is a lot of money. She is humbly asking for donations and prayers to support this journey. OCF has already set up with a fundraising account for people to donate online. See the link below.

Thank you so much, Xenia Kobal

FOR CONSIDERATION

Peace of soul is precious to all men. With those who have acquired peace of soul, the body can be in constant motion, occupation or pain, but their souls, cleaving to God, remain always in unshakeable peace. St. Seraphim of Serov teaches: We must endeavor by every means to keep peace of soul. Do not be troubled by the insults of men. It is necessary at all costs to restrain oneself from anger; and by watchfulness over oneself to keep the mind and heart from vain movement…For the guarding of peace of soul, it is also necessary to flee from judging others. By non-judgment and silence, peace of soul is preserved. When a man attains such a state, he receives divine revelation. For a man to be able to keep himself from judging others, he must be vigilant over himself; he must not dare to receive vain thoughts from another, and must be as one dead before all that is of this world. We must tirelessly keep our hearts from vain thoughts and impressions (Proverbs 4:23). By constant watchfulness over the heart, a purity of heart is born in which God is seen, according to the words of eternal truth: “Blessed are the pure in heart; for they shall see God” (Matthew 5:8).

QUOTES FROM THE HOLY FATHERS

Since every good work is entwined with vainglory and self-opinion, one must oppose it and drive it away. Just as many creeping vines can choke a tree, so also vainglory destroys good works.

St. Macarius of Optina

Strive for peace with all men, and for the holiness without which one will not see the Lord. (Hebrews 12:14). Why did he say “strive”? Because it is not possible for us to become holy and to be saints in an hour! We must therefore progress from modest beginnings toward holiness and purity. Even were we to spend a thousand years in this life we should never perfectly attain it. Rather we must always struggle for it every day, as if mere beginners.

St. Symeon the New Theologian

Pray, my brethren, to the Mother of God when the storm of enmity and malice bursts forth in your house. She, who is all-merciful and all-powerful, can easily pacify the hearts of men. Peace and love proceed from the one God, as from their Source, and Our Lady – in God, and the Mother of Christ the Peace, is zealous, and prays for the peace of the whole world, and above all – of all Christians. - St. John of Kronstadt
