QUOTES FROM THE HOLY FATHERS

Let us stop fighting and pray in a becoming way. We should put on the mildness of angels instead of the demons' brutality. No matter how we've become injured, we must soften our anger by considering our own case and our reward. Let us quiet the storms; we can pass through life calmly. Then, upon our departing, the Lord will treat us as we treated our neighbors. If this is a heavy, terrible thing to us, we must let Him make it light and desirable. What we don't have strength to carry out because of our struggle against sin, let us accomplish by becoming gentle to those who have sinned against us. St. John Chrysostom
