A MEMORIAL DAY PRAYER

Dear Heavenly Father,

As we remember those who have made the ultimate sacrifice for the freedoms we enjoy every day, we think of how they have followed in the footsteps of your son, our Savior, Jesus Christ. Please hold our servicemen and women in your strong arms. Cover them with your sheltering grace and your presence as they stand in the gap for our protection. We also remember the families of our troops. We ask for your unique blessings to fill their homes, and we pray your peace, provision, and strength will fill their lives. May the members of our armed forces be supplied with courage to face each day and may they trust in the Lord's mighty power to accomplish each task. Let our military brothers and sisters feel our love and support.

QUOTES FROM THE HOLY FATHERS

Let us stop fighting and pray in a becoming way. We should put on the mildness of angels instead of the demons' brutality. No matter how we've become injured, we must soften our anger by considering our own case and our reward. Let us quiet the storms; we can pass through life calmly. Then, upon our departing, the Lord will treat us as we treated our neighbors. If this is a heavy, terrible thing to us, we must let Him make it light and desirable. What we don't have strength to carry out because of our struggle against sin, let us accomplish by becoming gentle to those who have sinned against us. St. John Chrysostom

A true Christian is made by faith & love toward Christ. Our sins do not in the least hinder a Christian, according to the word of the Savior Himself. He deigned to say: "I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance; joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repents, more than over ninety-nine righteous persons."

St. Herman of Alaska

Silence is the greatest and most fruitful virtue; for this reason, the God-bearing Fathers call it sinlessness; silence and stillness, one and the same thing.

Elder Ephraim of the Holy Mountain
