QUOTES FROM THE HOLY FATHERS

The Good Lord created angels. But some angels fell because of pride and became demons. God created man as well, his perfect creation, to replace the fallen angels… they who were once angels, have never shown repentance. Instead, they become more cunning and malicious, and are set on destroying God's creatures with a vengeance… if they would only say, "Lord have Mercy on us." God would help them.

St. Paisios the Athonite

According to the teachings of the holy fathers, with each person there are two angels: one is good, the other is evil. The good angel is quiet, gentle and silent. When he enters the heart of a man, he speaks with him about truth, purity, honesty, calmness, about every good deed and about every virtue. When you feel it in your heart, it is obvious that the Angel of truth is in you. And the evil spirit is sharp-witted, cruel and insane. When he enters your heart, recognize him by his deeds.

St. Seraphim of Serov
