LIVES OF THE SAINTS

The Hieromartyr Cyprian and the Virgin Justina– 10/2- 10/15

Cyprian moved from Carthage to Antioch, where Justina lived with her parents, Edesius and Cleodonia. Edesius was an idolatrous priest and his whole household was pagan, but when Justina, going round the Christian Churches, came to know the true faith, she brought both her father and mother to Christ the Lord and all three were baptized by the Bishop, Optatus. Cyprian was a magician, and had links with unclean spirits and powers of divination. A dissolute youth Aglaidas, a pagan, tried to lead Justina astray, being enraptured by her beauty, and, when the holy maiden firmly rejected him, sought Cyprian's help. Cyprian invoked evil spirits, one after the other, on Justina, to set alight in her the passion of impurity towards Aglaidas, but they were totally unsuccessful in this, for St. Justina, with the sign of the Cross and prayer to God, drove out the evil spirits. Then Cyprian came to know the power of the Cross, and was himself baptized, in time becoming a priest and bishop. The wicked pagans seized both him and Justina, and they were sent for trial to Damascus, and then tortured and beheaded in Nicomedia at the end of the third century.

QUOTES FROM THE HOLY FATHERS

It's essential for people in the world to know the Bible, but especially the children. It's absurd to send children out to sports, to trades and to school, and yet not to give them a Christian upbringing. How long are we to be mere lumps of flesh, stooping to the earth? Let everything be secondary to our training our children in the discipline and love of the Lord. Do not seek mere outward learning. Let's teach and train our children to bear every trial and not be surprised at whatever happens to them. Everyone will respect them when they see them in the fire without being burned. Our own personal holiness isn't enough for salvation. So let's take care of our wives and children and servants, as well as ourselves. And let's implore God to help us in this work. If He sees us interested, He will help us. St. John Chrysostom

The Church is holy, although there are sinners within her. Those who sin, but who cleanse themselves with true repentance, do not keep the Church from being holy. But unrepentant sinners are cut off, whether visibly by Church authority, or invisible by the judgment of God, from the body of the Church. And so on this regard the Church remains holy.

St, Philaret of Moscow

It is in our power to either "bury" our conscience or allow it to shine within us and enlighten us through our subordination to it. Because when our conscience tells us to do something and we ignore it, or when it advises us to do something and we don't do it, we burden it or, as though, bury it so that its voice becomes fainter from the weight on it. - St. Dorotheos of Gaza
