QUOTES FROM THE HOLY FATHERS

Television and videos games have done great damage. It's especially destructive for children. A seven-year-old child came to the heritage once. I saw the demon of television speaking through the child's mouth, exactly as demons speak through the mouth of the possessed. It was like a baby born with teeth. It is not easy to find normal kids; they are turning into little monsters. And you see they don't get to think for themselves, they only repeat what they have heard and seen on television and video games. That's why they have come up with television and video games to begin with; to make people numb and dumb, so that they will take what they hear and see on television and in the video game and act accordingly.

St. Paisios the Athonite

Certain people often become overwhelmingly depressed by the state of the world. They are vexed when they see that the will of God is not done today by others and themselves and they suffer with the physical and psychological pain of others. This sensitivity is a gift from God…cannot be corrected. This sensitivity can only be transformed, altered and transfigured so as to become love, joy, and worship. How? By turning every sorrow into knowledge of Christ, love of Christ, and worship of Christ. And Christ, Who constantly waits with eagerness to help us, will give you His grace and His strength to transform sorrow into joy, into love for our fellows and worship of Him. Thus, darkness will flee.

St. Porphyrios of Kavsokalyvia
